

JUNIOR DEFENCE RULES

At the SSSAA Junior Girls Basketball Coaches Meeting it was decided that zone defenses would be allowed. The coaches agreed in principle (nothing bound by rules) that each team would play check defense (man-to-man) until the second half of the year. It was also agreed in principle that if a team is up by 20 or more points that any form of pressing will be taken off.